

CoreCheck: A Smarter Health Benefit for Your Team

What is CoreCheck?

CoreCheck is a comprehensive, self-administered blood test that gives employees valuable insights into their health. By offering CoreCheck as part of your wellness program, you're empowering your team with proactive health data that can lead to early detection and better long-term well-being.

Why CoreCheck Matters for Your Workforce

- ✓ Identifies Health Risks Early – Detect potential concerns before they become serious.
- ✓ Supports Employee Well-Being – Encourages healthier lifestyle choices.
- ✓ Demonstrates a Commitment to Wellness – Shows you care about your employees' health.

How It Works

- 1 Employees Receive Their Kit – A self-administered test is shipped directly to them.
- 2 Simple Sample Collection – Employees follow easy instructions at home.
- 3 Send Sample to the Lab – Return the kit using prepaid packaging.
- 4 Receive Actionable Results – Secure digital reports help employees make informed decisions.
